

They say a picture tells a thousand words. So, you should be able to write your own 13,000 word recap from these thirteen images, right? Yeah, I didn't think so. So just provide short captions. And don't forget to leave your captions as comments, so I can see what other people who aren't WhoreBoy and EmoHunk think of this show. I've also included what went through my head when I saw the screencaps.
